

MYSTERY IN MACON.

Great Manifestations in a Dwelling-House.
The papers of Macon, Ga., give long accounts of some mysterious occurrences which took place recently at the residence of Mr. A. P. Surrency, at Station No. 5, on the Macon and Brunswick railroad, in Appingedom. One of the most remarkable instances of no remarkable character, it seems, have been frequent there for the last twenty years, but it was not until Thursday, Oct. 10, that Mr. Surrency, an independent, quiet, and even frightened, a member of the Telegraph and Messenger visited the scene of these phenomena and from his account we will follow:

Mr. Surrency's house is a two-story frame house, plastered and weather-boarded. Mr. Surrency, on returning home Thursday, the 10th instant, was astonished to observe the glass-panes of the front door broken and the crockery to roll from the table, books, back-bands, pieces of wood, smoothing-iron, brass-ware, &c. scattered about. Numerous other articles, few about the house promiscuously without any visible cause. They seemed to spring up involuntarily. Some were never seen to move until they were shattered at the foot or against the wall.

On Sunday morning the strange phenomena were still more numerous. They occurred about 8 o'clock, when a pair of scissors, which had been lying on a distant table, were observed to descend on the earth. A bell, which had been rung, was seen to fall in another apartment of the house, producing a loud noise.

Late in the afternoon, while all the inmates of the house were at their supper, a noise was heard, and a bell, which had once been seen to fall in another apartment of the house, produced a loud noise.

On Monday the manifestations were again repeated, though less frequently and trifling manner. While a company of ladies' gentlemen were seated in one of the rooms of the house a hood suddenly appeared in the middle of the room, and, without being noticed, manifested the effects of a slight lightning, manifestations of which he retreated to an adjoining room, where, in full view of the company, it suddenly vanished like a ghostly apparition.

An old sea captain, who has been an eye-witness to the phenomena and strange demonstrations incident to a sailor's life and several years ago, has been called in to advise, determined to solve the mystery. He watched with fixed attention for some time a smooth-iron, which, heretofore, is his superannuated companion, in the room of the ghost. Hearing nothing, he went to the other room, where he understood was the other room, when it suddenly appeared in the room of the ghost. He took the pocket-watch, which was in his pocket, and removed his watch; but the bell disappeared as mysteriously as it came. Mr. Surrency is represented as a man of intelligence, and during the course of the manifestations, he has never been able to offer any explanation of them. Despairing of any relief from such weird demonstrations, he has sought refuge in the bottle. It is confidently believed that the hood appears which directs these phenomena, it is surprised will soon appear.

HAMILTON—OLYMPIA.—On Monday, the 11th instant, at the residence of the late father, by the name of Mr. John Hamilton, of Philadelphia, and Lazarus, daughter of Thomas Chase, son of Elias.

MONTGOMERY.—On the 3d instant, Mrs. Mary T. H. Montgomery, widow of Philip Montgomery, in the seventy-seventh year of her age, died at her residence, having taken from her late residence, except as it may be otherwise provided, $1,000. The relatives and friends are respectfully invited to pay their respects.

RICHARD W. BARKER, Cabinet-Maker and Undertaker,
612 ELEVENTH STREET, NEAR F.
URNITURE OF ALL KINDS MADE AND RE-PAIRED.—Established 1844.

CARRIAGES! CARRIAGES! CARRIAGES!!
On land and water. Land carriages, and second-hand carriages, light and heavy, embracing all the latest styles, at the lowest prices. We have a large stock of horses, &c., to attend to all kinds of business. JOHN T. BRIDGET, Established 1838.

Established 1844.

A. J. JOYCE & Co., Carriage Manufacturers,
412, 414, and 416
FOURTEENTH ST.

REPORTING. Reporting in all its branches. All carriages left for repair, carriage and harness stores, &c., Agents for H. & C. of America, New York, &c., English.

Pianos and MUSIC. 415 Thirteenth street, three stories from the Avenue. 1832-3.

GEORGE BERGLING, Merchant Tailor, 1318 F street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, south side.

FREEDMAN'S SAVINGS AND TRUST COMPANY, Banking House 1507 PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, OPPOSITE THE TREASURY.

For 15 per cent. interest, continuing first of each month. Pay all debts due, and leave balance to check. Pay all demands on demand. Cash or bank for a sum of the value.

Merchant Tailors.

L. ONGANO & HARDON, MERCHANT TAILORS, No. 109 Ninth street, Opp. Y. M. C. A. Have just received the finest assortment of Foreign goods ever offered to the Washington Public, and are prepared to make them up in the latest style.

REMOVED.

EVAN HUGHES, MERCHANT TAILOR.

Thinking my many patrons for their liberal patronage in the past, and hoping for a continuance of the same in the future, I have decided to close my business and Pennsylvania Avenue. Having disposed of my outfit at auction prices, I will be compelled to sell a small amount of imported fabrics, One-half of which will be sold at a sacrifice. I will do my best to please my patrons and the public generally. I hope to be able to furnish a small amount of second-hand goods, and those I will do my best to sell at a sacrifice of price, expressed by my removal from the Avenue.

DR. M. S. BROWN, Dentist, 14th Street, Boston.

UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE, On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

In the case of CHARLES GILMAN, ex parte A. C. COOPER, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested, to move in every direction, so as to facilitate the treatment of teeth, &c. The patent will be issued on the 22d day of January next.

DR. J. WEIRTH, Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, October 22, 1872.

On the petition of John T. Joyce, of Darton, Vt., resident of Washington, D. C., filed October 22, 1872, on the 1st day of February, 1873, and released on the 11th day of February, 1873, for an inventor named W. H. T. Murray, for a new improvement in the construction of the head of a dental chair, so constructed that the patient can be reclined in a horizontal position, and of the means used as far as the same have been collected and tested,